Hall-It'-th'-wood train station is approximately 1.0 mile from the Centre. As there are no direct connections to the Centre, we recommend taking a taxi from outside the station. Please contact us before you travel to ensure your taxi fare will be reimbursed.

National Rail advises that this station is inaccessible to wheelchair users.

From A58: From Bolton town centre, travel towards Astley Bridge/Bromley Cross. Follow the A666 to the A58 junction. With the ASDA superstore on your left, turn right onto the A58.

The Assessment Centre is on the left, 50 metres from the junction.

The nearest bus stop to the Assessment Centre is the Pineapple Stop F, directly outside the Lidl supermarket.

After leaving the bus, turn left and walk down the road. The Assessment Centre is less than 100m on the right.

Bolton Assessment Centre is a ground and first floor facility. Buzz the intercom when you arrive, and our reception team will let you in. There are six steps and a handrail at the entrance. There is a ramp at the rear entrance through the garage (Holland Street).

Disabled parking is available on Holland Street. There is one covered parking bay inside the building itself. Free on-street parking is also available.
